Welcome to SAFF 2027!

Look around you - You'll see yarn and fiber, sheep and goats, wheels and looms, amazing knitwear - but mostly you'll see people - your community. At the tables, in the vendor booths, waiting in lines - engaged in fiber work and play.

You'll meet new people while you all engage in doing what you love. You'll connect with people you see only once or twice a year. You know - those people that you can pick up the conversation right you left off at the last SAFF?

Change continues, as always. Since last year we are using Eventeny even more for the nuts and bolts of SAFF - the Fiber Arts Competition, RV registrations, volunteers, and now the fleece and livestock registrations and vendor registrations. Workshops are all through Lesson Face. It's been a learning curve for all of us - thanks for joining us in this journey!

I'm Lisa Mackey - If you are a shepherd, a vendor, an instructor or a long-time customer, you already know me. I've been involved in every part of the great big yarn party for a long time - now the president. But nobody does this alone. Everybody who helps make SAFF happen wears a lot of hats. We work together, relying on each other to bring you the best fiber fair in the southeast.

We want you - the fair goer - to have a great experience, whether you are shopping, taking classes, volunteering, or petting the sheep, goats and bunnies (maybe all of the above). But mostly, have fun!

Lisa Mackey, SAFF President

Don't miss the Fiber Arts Competition at SAFF!

A must see! So many amazing entries you will truly be inspired.

With over 45 categories, the competition has something for everyone. Skeins, Knitting, Crochet, Weaving, Felting, Repurposed Wool, Fiber Hooking, Other Techniques and Youth categories.

2026 is the year to encourage the Youth in all things fiber! They are our future! There are 11 youth categories. You must be 17 or younger and there are no entry fees for youth.

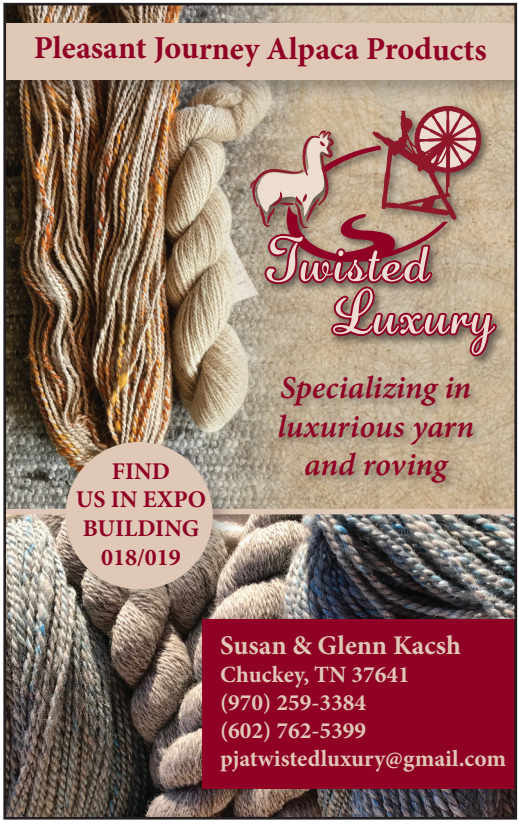

All entries arrive by noon on Friday. Judging of the entries will start early Saturday morning and the competition room will be closed until judging is complete.

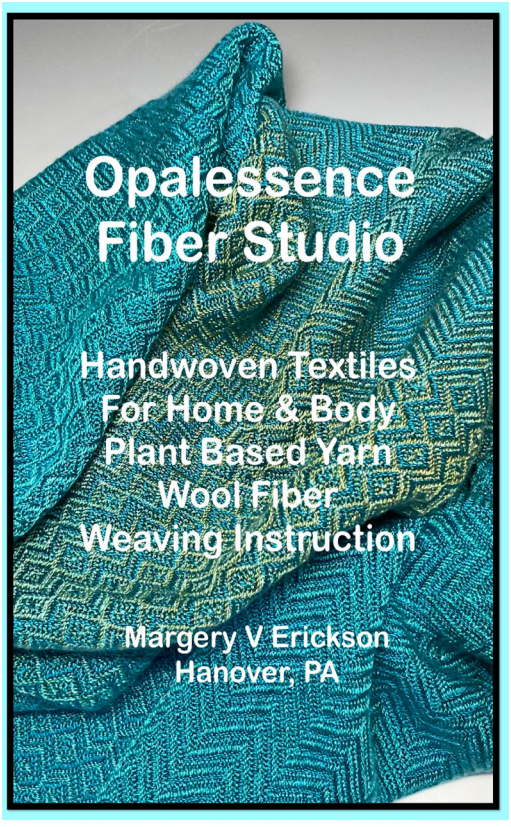

Be sure to stop by to see all the prize winners! Also, when you visit be sure to vote for the People's Choice award. The winner will be announced at noon on Sunday.

The Fiber Arts Competition room is located in the Davis Arena Conference Room, located off the long hallway (lobby) next to the main entrance to the vendors. Look for the sign with white lights.

Hope to see you there!

Thank you to all our volunteers!

Each year we like to take a little time to thank the people who make SAFF the wonderful event that it has grown into. All through the year we knit, crochet, weave and do all kinds of fiber-y things alone in our homes and studios, in small groups of friends and in our yarn shops and guilds. But every year we come together to really celebrate our really big community.

By volunteering, you have made somebody's life a little better. You helped them find a classroom, a vendor, the perfect fleece. When you showed that fair-goer what amazing fiber art can be, you may have started that young person on a creative journey. The kindness that you showed to a tired, lost or confused person might just have made their day.

I hope each of you knows how much you are appreciated. We couldn't do it without you - and we wouldn't want to!

Sincerely,
AnneMarie Walter
Volunteer Coordinator
